How They're Using Microsoft Teams:

"Our employees have been surprised and delighted with the intuitive interface and the ability Microsoft Teams gives them to mobilize people in a way we've never seen before. It's easy to onboard people midproject, and it works well on a Mac. And like all the other Office 365 apps, we get the structure and security that makes us comfortable with Microsoft cloud solutions."

Jamie McLellan, Chief Technology Officer J. Walter Thompson

Use Case

- Global teams
- Central workspace
- Natural adoption

How They're Using Microsoft Teams:

"The real advantage of Microsoft Teams is that you're more productive because you don't have to constantly switch between productivity apps. With Microsoft Teams, it's contextually evident when to use the different Office 365 services—Skype for Business Online to start a meeting, OneNote to organize meeting minutes, and SharePoint Online or Microsoft OneDrive for Business to save your document."
